

Dear FCC:

I am a small business owner and I travel the midwest and find my XM radio very beneficial. I am appose to the FCC limiting traffic and weather reports on XM radio. No matter where I travel I know I can get the quality and stations I need. I pay for this service and feel that the FCC should not be able to limit XM's programing. Please do not subject XM radio to programing limitations. Thank you.

Joseph H. Merschman
2 Klesner Court
Fort Madsion, IA 52627